

Bloomin Marvelous, New Boutique Launches in Wokingham

May 2010

Wokingham's newest most exciting boutique Antique Rose, opened its doors this month. Wokingham's newest home and gift boutique specialising in all things shabby chic and vintage, for you and your home. O

Antique Rose's party to celebrate the launch of their new 'Shabby Chic Boutique' was held in their Bush Walk Wokingham store on Thursday 29th April.

The event attracted over 200 Guests, including other local business owners, loyal customers, the local press, the Mayor of Wokingham and many supporters of the business from its previous location in Rose st.

Guests shared in a glass of Champagne, canapés and handmade cupcakes whilst browsing Antique Rose's range of shabby chic and vintage products, including their newest range of Cath Kidston products and second floor furniture show room. The event was a great success and there was a definite buzz of excitement around the launch, "this is exactly what Wokingham needs" said one enthusiastic party goer to her friend, "absolutely, I know exactly where to come next time I need a gift or a little treat for me". There was a competition to win a shabby chic dresser and every guest went home with a bag of free goodies. Georgina (Owner) said "What a fabulous beginning to this new chapter for Antique Rose, we are so excited about the fabulous new space we have to display our existing and new product ranges, with such a great opportunity to bring them to a much wider audience". Watch out for new products, further promotions and special offers over the coming months ....
