

SOCIAL SCENE

Celebration for Antique Rose

Over 200 guests, including the Mayor of Wokingham, celebrated the launch of Antique Rose's new 'shabby chic boutique' in Bush Walk, Wokingham. The store was previously in Rose Street.

Guests drank Champagne and indulged in canapés and handmade cupcakes whilst browsing Antique Rose's range of shabby chic and vintage products, including their newest range of Cath Kidston products and second floor furniture show room. Owner Georgina Hustler said: "We are so excited about the fabulous new space we have to display our existing and new product range, bringing them to a much wider audience."

Wokingham Town Mayor Cllr Ulla Karin Clark was at the launch with Georgina Hustler

Georgina Hustler and manager Jenny Mitchell with guest Daniel Mosley.

Beverley Edmundson and friend

Sam Jones, Graham Feeney, Sally Bolter and Sue Gilder

The ladies from neighbouring Rococo, peruse what Antique Rose has to offer

The Antique Rose team (left to right) Leanne Sinclair, Claire Gellard, Georgina Hustler, Jenny Mitchell, Becci Velzian and Emily Giddings

Laurenne Dourgan and Annabelle Dennis

